Get lessons in a special Classroom

Getting lessons from a real ranger with the lions within roaring distance? You can! In the middle of the Safaripark you will find the Classroom, complete with nostalgic wooden school desks and African decor.

In the Classroom, our rangers provide lessons on African culture or the relationship between humans and animals. These exciting lessons last about three quarters of an hour. They are suitable for both primary and secondary schools.

Pre-fun with our free teaching packages

The fun starts in the classroom! Not only in the park, but also in your own classroom, we are happy to teach you a thing or two. That is why we have developed free teaching packages. They are suitable for both primary and secondary education and connect to teaching materials from, for example, Wolters-Kluwer and Malmberg.

Download the teaching packages at beeksebergen.nl/lespakketten.
